

Message from the Chair of the NACM Board

Tansi, Aaniin, Boozhoo, Wotziye,
Greetings

It is my pleasure to extend greetings on behalf of the Board and Staff of the Native Addictions Council of Manitoba to share our 2018-2019 Annual Report with you. With collaboration, involvement and partnerships to the realization of NACM's Vision, Mission and Goals.

By working together, we have and continue to work to promote and increase First Nation led restoration and excellence of health and wellness, in a holistic environment preserving our traditional customs, culture and Languages.

As part of our Annual Report, I am pleased to present the NACM financially sound operations within this year's financial audit.

As the Board Chair, I would like to acknowledge and congratulate the Staff of NACM and Senior Management Team on their accomplishments and sound leadership throughout the past year. We would like to thank the staff for their continued commitment and personal sacrifices made to ensure their contributions are done efficiently and effectively. To my fellow Board of Directors, Kinanskomitin for your shared vision, wisdom and application of your home fires to the spirit and intent of first nations health across Manitoba. Your contributions apply to a legacy of advancement in the health and wellness of our people.

In closing, I would like to extend best wishes to all Manitoba First Nation Communities and members in Health and prosperity.

In the Spirit of Truth and Reconciliation,

Cathy Merrick, Chairperson NACM
